

The do not call list is the best thing that has happened to NJ in a long time. I can finally count on the fact that my home dinner and early evening hours are not constantly interrupted by telemarketers making 'Courtesy Calls'. This early evening time is invaluable to families as they work to get caught up with each other after a long day of work, school etc.